To Whom It May Concern:

It's been a privilege to partner in ministry with the Soul Choir on several occasions.

Their desire (and incredible ability!) to inspire and encourage inmates made perfect sense for me when I was looking to find a musical partner for my prison outreach events. Their songs of faith and hope are appropriate for any setting, but something magical happens when they bring their joyful message to those behind the walls. You can't help but be moved and uplifted!

I highly recommend the Soul Choir and look forward to working with them again.

Sincerely,
