

SOUL CHOIR MINISTRY CODE OF CONDUCT & PLEDGE

Soul Choir is first, and foremost, a ministry organization and wants to be as clear as possible about its commitment to a biblical moral standard of conduct.

In order to maintain the integrity and witness of Soul Choir, it is very important that certain moral and ethical guidelines be followed by its staff and members.

Soul Choir members, staff members, board members, and officers should maintain a growing and maturing walk with Christ in order to effectively minister to the needs of others.

Personal Pledge:

As an ambassador of Jesus Christ, I will strive to walk in obedience to God and to His Word, with a life morally pure and with good relationships with others, both in private and in public, as far as it is in my power.

I will conduct myself in a gracious and professional manner musically, as well as in word and deed.

I will refrain from behaviors that contradict a biblical moral standard of conduct. These acts or behaviors include, but are not limited to, adultery, fornication, homosexuality, prostitution, incest, physical, sexual, or emotional abuse against an adult or child, substance abuse, acts of violence, criminal activity, habitual viewing of pornographic materials, participation in pornography, indecent exposure, sexual harassment, slander, and filthy language. [Colossians 3:5-9; Corinthians 6:9-10]

By signing this document, I hereby declare a partnership with the Soul Choir in belief and in conduct and realize that failure to adhere to the above behavioral expectations may jeopardize my involvement in Soul Choir activities.
